Dear Ms Li,

I am very happy to have you as our English teacher.

As the world is becoming a global village, English is getting more and more important, so mastering English means we can see the world through a new window. (状语从句、宾语从句、并列句)

My English is just OK and the two main problems in my study are that I feel it difficult to learn words by heart, and that I often feel nervous when speaking English. (并列句、表语从句) I really hope that you can give me good advice on how to memorize new words. (宾语从句) Another suggestion is to give us more chances to practice speaking. (表建议的语言手段) I believe we can make greater progress in English with your help. (宾语从句)

Thank you!
Li Hua

15. 山东卷

As a high school student, I consider English a very important subject. In order to learn it well, apart from English class, I take an active part in English corner and other after-class English activities, which benefit me a lot.

At the English corner, I meet many friends, who share the same interest with me. Besides, sometimes, some foreigners are glad to join us. By talking with them, my oral English has improved a lot.

I also find it useful to keep English diaries. (it 作形式宾语) I keep on doing it these years and it is helpful to my English. As a saying goes, practice makes perfect. Only by practice will we make more progress. (倒装句)

Finally, some good English study websites contribute a lot to my improvement. Through these websites, I can read some classic English passages, poems and stories. What's more, I can learn some learning skills and methodologies, which play an important part in my study process.

All in all, every road leads to Rome, but I believe hard work pays off.

Dear Editor,

As a student reader, I am writing to talk about the English textbooks published by your house. These books have many advantages, one of which is that we can find a variety of topics, such as science, culture and history. (介词+关系代词的定语从句) These topics, I think, are very popular with us students with many beautiful and colorful pictures along with the texts, which can help us understand English better. (with 复合结构和非限制性定语从句) Even the students who used to dislike English have turned out to be interested in the subject. However, some of the texts have too many new words and expressions which are hard for us. Therefore, I'd like to suggest changing them into easier ones.

Best regards,
Li Hua

Mind Your Behavior in Public Places

Last Sunday, I went sightseeing with my friends in the Fairy Lake Park. The park was full of freshness and beauty of spring, with the sun shining and birds singing. I was enjoying the fantastic scenery around when something unpleasant caught my eye. A young couple in a boat were eating, talking and laughing loudly as if they were the only people in the world. What's worse, they spat and even threw rubbish into the lake, totally ignoring the noticeable sign "No Littering" nearby. What a shame!

Such behavior left me deep in thought. If all visitors to the Fairy Lake Park do as the couple did, the lake will be severely polluted and soon turned into a huge dustbin. I think all of us should mind our behavior in public places. Only in this way can we live in more comfortable and peaceful surroundings.
